Housing Development Plan 2001 for Delhi

202. SHRI BEKAL UTSAHI: Will the Minister of URBAN DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that a housing development perspective plan 2001 has been drawn up for Delhi;

(b) if so, what percentage of the capital's population is proposed to be provided with houses by the year 2001; and

(c) what are the other features of the housing development plan, indicating its cost and Government contribution thereto?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF URBAN DEVELOPMENT (SHRI M. ARUNACHALAM): (a) and (b) The Master Plan for Delhi Perspective 2001 has projected the housing need as 16.2 lakhs for the total envisaged urban population of 12.2 million by the year 2001. However, 7.50 lakhs houses are expected to be constructed by different agencies and private sector during the Eighth Five Year Plan.

(c) The Master Plan for Delhi Perspective 2001 has not worked out the financial aspects of the proposed housing development which is proposed to be provided by various agencies i.e., D.D.A., Co-operative Societies, Employer Housing, Housing by individual on plots and infil in the regularised colonies etc.

Development of NCR Towns

203. SHRI S. S. AHLUWALIA:
SHRI BEKAL UTSAHI:

Will the Minister of URBAN DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that despite the National Capital Region Board Act, coming into force in 1985, the ongoing flow of migrants continues in the National Capital Region;

(b) whether it is also a fact that the eight priority towns—Meerut, Hapur, Bulandshahar, Khurja, Panipat, Rohtak, Palwal Rewari and Alwar Bhiwadi Complex have not been developed as envisaged under the National Capital Region Board Act;

(c) if so, what are the reasons thereof; and

(d) what action Government propose to take to minimise the inflow of migrants in the capital?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF URBAN DEVELOPMENT (SHRI M. ARUNACHALAM: (a) Yes, Sir. It is not legally possible to prohibit any migration into the National Capital Region.

(b) Eight priority towns have been identified under the Regional plan 20001—NCR which has been notified on 23-1-89 and not under the NCR Planning Board Act.

(c) The NCR Plan came into effect only 1989 and it is too early to assess its impact on priority towns.

(d) The implementation of the NCR plan—2001 is expected to minimise the inflow of migrants in the capital by developing alternate growth centres for channelising the flow of migrants.

Delivery of levy sugar

204. SHRI A. G. KULKARNI:
DR. BAPU KALDATE:
SHRI VISHWASRAO RAMRAO PATIL:

Will the Minister of FOOD be pleased to refer to the answer to Unstarred Question 1698 given in the Rajya Sabha on the 13th September, 1991 and state:

(a) whether it is a fact that the procedure to streamline the deliveries of levy sugar is being mis-used by various sugar factories and whether Government have received any complaints regarding misuse of levy sugar deliveries.
